Aaron Kubey is a Certified Deaf Interpreter (CDI) who currently works for the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). He's been a CDI since 2016, and has worked several disasters through FEMA at Headquarters and in the field at disaster sites. Prior to working with FEMA, he has worked with two interpreting agencies as an interpreter and as a scheduler. He also works as a freelancer interpreter and as a Director of Artistic Sign Language for various theatre companies in the Washington, DC area.

Richard Zabelski is a Nationally Certified Hearing Interpreter (NIC). Richard began his education in Michigan and moved on to Gallaudet university where he completed his undergraduate and graduate degrees. He interprets in a variety of settings, one in particular is the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) providing support for both Headquarters staff and disaster recovery staff.
