

Spring 2019

Looking for an engaging, thought-provoking, and meaningful class?
Participate in a communication experience.

COM 295: The Forum

The Forum is conceptualized and designed on historical rhetorical methods (e.g., ancient Rome) and is implemented through a large lecture classroom space where faculty, students, and community engaged citizens will delve into diplomatic civic debate and seek answers to difficult questions and problems. Students, in partnership with The University of Alabama Digital Media Center, will encourage and influence the design and production of three Alabama Public Television episodes of The Forum. This experience is designed to provide students with practical insights into solving societal problems through community collaboration, diplomatic civic debate, and the development of effective communication and leadership skills.

COM 295-320 (CRN 19067), Thursdays from 6:30 – 9:20pm in Reese Phifer, Room 216; Co-Instructors - Dr. Sim Butler & Dr. Darrin Griffin; Teaching Assistant - Samuel Hakim; Apply for your opportunity to enroll in this class at the C&IS Engagement Portal
